1 A JOINT RESOLUTION designating honorary names for various roads and bridges
2 and directing the placement of honorary roadside signs.

3 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis, son of Pamela Sue Dearwester and the late Charles D.
4 Ellis, was a native of Cincinnati, Ohio; and

5 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis was a 1998 graduate of Glen Este High School in 6 Cincinnati, where he was a standout baseball player, earning first team all-city honors in 7 1998, and being named Player of the Year in the Queen City Conference; and

8 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis played baseball at the University of the Cumberlands and 9 in the Cincinnati Reds minor league system for the Billings, Montana Mustangs; and

10 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis was a K-9 officer with the Bardstown Police Department
11 and a member of the N.N.D.D.A. K-9 Association, the Fraternal Order of Police No. 43, 12 and the Special Response Team; and

13 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis was married to his beloved wife, Amy Phillips Ellis, with 14 whom he had two cherished sons, Hunter Ellis and Parker Ellis; and

15 WHEREAS, Jason Ellis was deeply involved in his community, serving as a Little 16 League coach; and

17 WHEREAS, on May 25, 2013, Officer Jason Ellis, this esteemed citizen, this 18 servant and protector of the people, was killed in the line of duty in a brutal and senseless 19 ambush that sent shock waves of grief and loss throughout the Bardstown community and 20 the entire Commonwealth; and

21 WHEREAS, remembrances of the life and service of Jason Ellis were best summed 22 up by Bardstown Police Chief Rick McCubbin, who said, "He certainly loved this. He 23 loved being a police officer. He gave 100 percent, not only in his job, but in life. He 24 didn't take short cuts. He did it right."; and

25 WHEREAS, perhaps the most compelling testimonial came from the woman that 26 showed up at the Bardstown police station to pay her respects, a woman whose husband 27 Officer Ellis had arrested on a theft charge, who said, "He was very nice, smiling the

1 whole time, playing with my dogs. He seemed very concerned about my husband's 2 medical issues. It was like you welcomed your neighbor into the house. It wasn't like he 3 was there to arrest somebody. I was just very impressed with him."; and

4 WHEREAS, the passing of Officer Jason Ellis has left a void which cannot be 5 filled, and he is mourned, not only in Bardstown, but across the length and breadth of the 6 Commonwealth, by his family, friends, and the citizens he helped keep safe; and

7 WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the service and sacrifice of Officer Jason Ellis be 8 memorialized in some tangible way, even though it is impossible to truly represent what 9 he meant to his community; and

10 WHEREAS, from time to time, the General Assembly has seen fit to honor various 11 Kentuckians by naming portions of state highways and erecting commemorative roadway 12 signs in their honor; and

13 WHEREAS, these Kentuckians have come from all walks of life, held a multitude 14 of jobs, and had a variety of accomplishments that made them deserving of the honor; and

15 WHEREAS, these individuals have included former Governors, former members of 16 the General Assembly, decorated veterans, slain law enforcement officers, local elected 17 officials, astronauts, doctors, educators, distinguished athletes, and civic leaders; and

18 WHEREAS, every citizen of the Commonwealth owes a great debt of gratitude to 19 the patriotic men and women killed and wounded in service to their country in times of 20 great need; and

21 WHEREAS, the General Assembly has often honored the veterans of this state by 22 naming portions of several roads, from interstates to small two-lane country roads, in 23 their honor; and

24 WHEREAS, the General Assembly again sees fit to honor a group of individuals
25 who have made the lives of their fellow Kentuckians better and brought honor and respect
